Thank you mom and dad for always supporting me no matter what. Thank you for never giving up on me, and for always telling me that as long as I do my best, that is all that matters. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to go to school at Sacred Heart. I am truly blessed to have you two as parents. I love you both so much. Thank you to my friends who I have met here at Sacred Heart. I am so happy that we have been on this journey together. Thank you to my teachers for your patience and for challenging me academically. All of you have helped me so much throughout the years and I cannot thank you guys enough.

Mom and dad, I am so fortunate to have two of the world's greatest role models as my parents. As I've grown up your emphasis of the importance of faith and working hard has helped me develop into a stronger person. Patrick, thank you for being the best brother ever and my longest kept friend. To all of my friends whom I am so grateful to have in my life, thank you for making my journey here incredibly memorable. The best decision that my parents and I made was for me to stay at Sacred Heart from elementary school through high school. From jump roping in Ms. Coletta's gym class to stargazing in Millinocket I couldn't have asked for a better group of people to take this journey with. Congratulations class of 2014, we did it!

I want to thank my family, friends, and the great people at Sacred Heart for the support over these last four years. Sacred Heart really is one big family when you stop to think about it, and I wouldn't have wanted my high school experience any other way. Mom, Dad, Stephen; you guys are unbelievable and I can't thank you enough for all you do for me. It means a lot. Moving on is going to be tough; new people, new places, and new opportunities. Thank you to my teachers at Sacred Heart for making my education an enjoyable one.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude for the sacrifice and support I have been fortunate to have been bestowed upon me. Mom and Dad, thank you for guiding me through the years. Mom, you always told me that it was your JOB to make me into a good man and Dad..you always taught me that Biancos' are leaders NOT followers. These are words I will have in my heart always. Alex.. a brother is a friend that God gave you. Thank you for being the best of both. A special thanks to Mimi and Grampie for being such a big part of my life and being there each and every day! Not to forget a shout out to THE TEAM, A.B., J.K., D.L., P.R., J.B... it's been "the ills"!

I would like to thank everyone who has been a positive influence in my life. I would like to thank all of my teachers from Dennett Elementary School and from Sacred Heart. I would also like to thank my family; my mom, my dad, my sister, and my dog. I also have to thank my friends. Without you guys (Griffin, Eric, Kevin, Pat, and Kieran) I would have missed out on a lot of great memories and experiences that made high school worth while.

I would like to start off with thanking my parents. Mom, without you I would not be the person I am today. You've done everything possible for me and I appreciate it more than you know. To my Dad, thank you for supporting me in everything that I do and for putting up with me all these years. I want you both to know that you're the most important people in my life. To the rest of my family, aunts, uncles, and grandparents, thank you for just being there when I needed it. Special thanks to my grandma for bringing me to and from school for 11 years of my life. I don't know what I would've done without you. Finally, to my wonderful group of friends, I'm so thankful for the friendship we share. We've stuck with each other through thick and thin and high school would've been completely boring without you ladies. Here's to the class of 2014, a time that I will never forget!

High school should not be taken too seriously. One of the many inspirational teachers I had once explained to me that grades are just meant keep our parents happy, which is true, yet high school is much more than that. I made the best of friends during high school. My parents sent me to Sacred Heart for getting good grades and I will always be thankful to them for the opportunities they provided for me. I just wish my younger brother Kyle went to school with me because I will miss him so much while I'm at college. Keep it real, Sacred Heart.

I would like to thank my family and my teachers for supporting me throughout high school, but most importantly I would like to thank my friends. While my family and my teachers were there to support me, my friends were the ones there with me, sitting through classes, and playing sports. We made a lot of memories in high school, and it won't be the same going to college without them. Thanks for making high school a memorable experience for me, Sacred Heart won't be the same without us.

Thirteen years at Sacred Heart have flown by in the blink of an eye. I want to thank my friends and family for all they have done to get me to this point, helping me grow as a person and as a student. Mom, Dad, and Chelsea, I am extremely grateful for your support and all you have ever given me. I would not be the person I am today without you. Donna, Zach, and Tyler, thank you for always being there for me. You are truly my second family. And Kayla, you are literally my other half. I could not even imagine going through all these years without you. I have made so many memories and learned so much during my days here. Thank you for all the great times Class of 2014. Good luck to you in whatever the future may hold.

I want to thank each and every one of my classmates who made this unforgettable journey possible. From standing on the yellow punishment line side by side in 5th grade, to standing on the end line side by side on our volleyball, cheerleading and track senior nights: thank you to those who have bettered me inside and out over the past 4 years. Mom, Dad and Kendra: thank you for being my number one support system and coming to every game, meet and ceremony. I love you. Anna, thank you for all the great memories, from going on walks in our neighborhood to walking the streets of Haiti. I love you so much. My friends (F4): you guys made me smile every day and we have had the greatest time these past 4 years. I will never forget our memories. Eric, thank you for being there for me, by my side since 5th grade. You are truly the best friend I have ever had and I love you so much. Thank you everyone who helped me get to where I am today. Congrats Class of 2014, we did it!!!!

I wouldn't be where I am today without the support of my loving family. Thank you so much mom and dad for all you have sacrificed and all you do for me. Ryan, Deirdre, and Brendan, you guys are the best and I know that I can always count on you to be there for me. To my friends, I'm so grateful to have you in my life. I love you guys and you have helped me more than you know. Thank you to my teachers and coaches for helping shape me into the woman I am today and teaching me things I will hold close in life. Kieran, thank you for being there for me no matter what. Your passion and dedication for everything you do in life is inspiring. I know you will continue to do amazing things in the future and I hope to be by your side through it all. I love you and always will.

Many thanks to the teachers and staff at Sacred Heart, you all taught me how to set my goals high and how to reach them. Thank you to my friends for the unforgettable memories; without you guys I wouldn't have gotten through high school! You will never know how much you guys mean to me. Last but not least a HUGE thank you to my family; mom, dad, Kellie and Bella, I love you all so very much. Thank you for the love and support you have given me through the years, and for always believing in me. I would not be where I am standing today without you guys, you make my life complete.

I would first like to thank my parents. They are truly the best parents anyone could ever ask for and have made me into who I am today. I would also like to thank my brother and best friend Gregory. You are the funniest and most ridiculous human being I have ever met. I love you to pieces. S/O to the realest thug in the game. Thank you to my Sacred Heart teachers, especially Mr. Boccacini, Ms Zigouras, and Ms Arnold. You have all given me so much valuable wisdom that I will take with me throughout life. Lastly, thank you to my best friends. You guys have always been there for me, thank you, I love you x.

The immense gratitude I have for everything and everyone I've come to know in my life, particularly in my 13 years at Sacred Heart, extends far beyond this tiny text box or even the covers of this book. So as concisely as possible, I'd like to thank my parents for giving me these 13 incredible years. Thank you Mom and Dad for all your support, love, and guidance over the years. Thank you Ainsley for being a good sister; you've shaped me into the person I am today in more ways than one. Thank you to all the teachers who have intellectually and spiritually raised me so well throughout my academic life. Thank you to all my close friends for all the good times we've had together and for being there for me when times were tough. I hope those good times with all my family and friends will continue through college and beyond.

I'd like to thank my friends and family for making these past four years the best they could have ever been. Mom, Dad, Grandma, and Daddad, I'm so thankful for the support you have given me and I will always be your little girl. Nicole, I don't know what I would have done without you and you are my best friend. Thank you for always having the best advice, and taking selfies with the dogs and me. Nathan, thank you for always being there to joke around with. I'd like to thank my friends for always being there for me with a shoulder to cry on, and also for supporting me through every choice I've made along the way. Class of 2014, I am so happy to be graduating with each and every one of you. I will never forget these amazing four years. I wish all of you the best of luck in your future endeavors. Ah it at last is over, my high school life here at Sacred Heart. Look back from the beginning, I need to thank my parents for sending me to this wonderful place, for their love to me, and for their effort behind me. They are the best parents ever and I will always love them. Then I need to say thank you to my school friends, my Chinese fellas as well as the American ones. It is you guys who make these three years worthy and beautiful. Also, the teachers, without them I am nothing, they taught me knowledge, skills, as well as how to be a strong man, how to live a good life. And the school itself, I will miss the time when my voice echoes in the auditorium, I will miss the time I lost the badminton competition in the SAC, I will miss every smiling face I saw here. Thank you all.

I want to thank all of my fellow classmates for giving me four amazing years. To my coaches and teachers, I appreciate everything you have done to help shape me into a man of passion and dedication on and off the field. To Kevin "Bird" and Griffin "Strang", you guys haven't just been my friends since kindergarten, you are my brothers and I love you both. To my family, I just want to make sure you know that I will always love you forever. You have taught me how to be a man of integrity, compassion, and courage. Finally, I want to say thank you to my beautiful girlfriend. I love you so much Moira and hope you are always in my life.

Mom, Bridget, Grandma, Grandpa, and Aunt Dede I know it has been a bumpy ride for all of us, but with the love and support you have given me throughout high school I feel all of you have finally set me on a smooth path towards my future. Family is forever, and without any of you I wouldn't be the young man I am today. A special thanks goes to Mr. Gerry Golden who brought out the best in me in the classroom. He gave me the confidence I never had as a student and I was truly blessed to have such a wonderful teacher and role model like him influence my life. Also, a big thanks to Mike Bentley for not only being my best friend, but for being my brother and taking every step through high school with me. I love you man and couldn't ask for a better friend by my side. Lastly, thanks to all administrators and faculty at Sacred Heart. I cannot believe that my four years of high school flew by that fast. When people told me it would be the fastest time of my life, I did not believe them. I want to especially thank my parents for paying for me to go to Sacred Heart and for supporting me throughout high school. I am especially thankful for my dad because he is my biggest supporter and he is my role model. I also want to thank my friends that I have met here and have had the best times together. I do not want those times to be over. Also, thank you to my sports coaches and teachers who have pushed and have been here for me. High school has been a great journey, and this journey is finally coming to an end. I will definitely miss my time at Sacred Heart. And thank you to Shai Myers for being my friend!!!

Thank you to my parents, teachers and friends. I've had a great time at Sacred Heart and I can't believe it's been four years. Every year has gotten better and better, but now it is time to move on to the next chapter of our lives. Every person at Sacred Heart has taught me so much that I feel I am ready to take on any challenge life throws at me. I'm so glad that I was able to meet such amazing people, and hope all the best for everyone.

Wow, I can't believe we made it to the end! Thank you to my parents for giving me the best high school experience I could possibly have. Mom, I'm not really sure how I could have survived without you down the hall...college will be strange without you. Dad, thank you for being there when I needed you and always making me smile. Joey, thank you for being one of my best friends and enjoy the rest of high school. It flies by, but I know you'll do amazing. Lastly, to all my friends, teammates, and classmates: thank you for making my high school years some of the best years of my life. I'm so lucky to have been in such a good school with so many great people. Good luck to all of you with whatever your future holds.

As it turns out, twelve years is not a very long timespan. I'd like to thank my parents first, for their unbelievable support and every single thing they have done for me. Dad, I'll always have in the back of my head your "positive mental attitude" and sports enthusiasm. Mom, you have been the greatest friend I could ask for and it's going to be difficult next year when we can't randomly go shopping or out to eat on a Tuesday night. Tyler, thank you for simply being the greatest brother anyone could ask for. I would also like to thank Kim, for your support, and Lindsay, for being the closest thing I'll ever have to a sister. I can't believe such a large chapter of my life is ending, but I hope for the next chapter to be filled with twice as much excitement, twice as much happiness, and twice as much fun.

I can't believe that after thirteen years at Sacred Heart I'm finally a graduating senior. Through the ups and the downs, I wouldn't trade my time at this school for anything. Thank you to all my teachers for guiding me and giving me the tools I'll need to accomplish my goals in life. Mom and Dad, words cannot express how grateful I am to you for everything you have done for me. I'm so blessed to have parents as wonderful as you and I hope you know how much I love and appreciate you guys. Katie, even though I don't always show it, you're the best sister anyone could ask for and you've helped me through high school more than you know. Sam, you're a great kid and I hope you enjoy high school as much as I did. To my friends, you mean the world to me and I wouldn't have made it through high school without you guys. I love you all so much and I can't wait for us to be able to share even more memories.

2014 always seemed so far away, but it's finally here. Thank you to my outstanding teachers and athletic coaches who have not just pushed me to become a better student athlete but also a better person. A special thank you to Coach Slavin, I would not be the same person I am today without your guidance. To my volleyball sisters, thank you for allowing me to conquer my goals and being a family outside of my family. Mom and Dad- Thank you for expecting so much out of me and never allowing me to fall short of that. You both have given me more than I could ever repay you for. Jen- Following you around since diaper days has given me a best friend and role model. I hope one day I can be as beautiful as you are, inside and out. To my best friends, you never ceased to make me laugh, even if it was at myself. I can't thank you enough for brightening the darkest of days. Class of 2014, you have become a bigger part of me than I can explain. I genuinely hope you all become the people you have the potential to be. Please don't let this be the last time our paths cross.

Thank you for granting me with such an incredible life and education. To say I was blessed with the most amazing parents is an understatement. To my sisters, Kaitlyn, MaryKate, and Minsu, I just want to say a special thank you for always being there for me. I can always count on you. To my friends (you know who you are), I don't know what I would have done without you girls in these four years. You will always have a special place in my heart. To my class of 2014, I wish each and every one of you the best. Whatever path you choose, may you find happiness. We did it!

And my grandfather for teaching some lessons that even a dad couldn't teach. To Kelsea, I thank you for breaking the ice on all future events, it's nice to have someone to turn to with experience, good and bad. And Rachel, thanks for always tagging along with me, and more importantly, thanks for being the friend who's always there to keep a secret or two from mom and dad. Mom, Dad, I can't express in words how fortunate I am for the both of you. I thank you for being my number one fan in the stands at every game, and sticking with me through my best moments and picking me up at my worst. To all six of you, I love you so much, thank you for being such an important part of these 13 years.

I would like to thank every member of my family: my parents, brothers, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins for always believing in me. Knowing that each of you are proud of what I have accomplished is a feeling that could never be duplicated. To my parents, I love you both so much. You are selfless; you have given me everything I could ask for and more. To Nick and Nathan, thank you for picking me up when I was down; you never fail to make me laugh. To my lovely ladies, you've pushed me when I needed it and you were shoulders to cry on when things got tough. I am just as proud of you, as you are of me. And to Andrew, I would not be here without your encouraging words. Thank you for supporting me and believing in me; it means more than you know. To the Class of 2014, we have made so many amazing memories together. I am thankful for meeting all of you. I wish each of you the best of luck as you take the next step in your lives. MEMORIES

Courtney Burt

Dear Courtney,
Words can not describe how proud we are of you. Not only for your accomplishments in school...but outside of school as well. You are a beautiful person both inside and out. Always be true to yourself.
All our love,
Mom, Dad and Kyle
xo

Sammy

"Never be mean in anything; never be false; never be cruel. Avoid those three vices...and I can always be hopeful of you." --Aunt Betsey (David Copperfield)

"And the journey's finished. But after coming all that way I don't want to give up yet. It's not like me, somehow, if you understand." --Samwise Gamgee (The Return of the King)

We are already and always will be proud and "hopeful of you." This journey is finished; enjoy the next one!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Miranda

Michael Leo

Congratulations!! We are filled with such pride, joy & love to see the young man you have become. With your strength, character and faith in God you have overcome so many obstacles. Your future is yours to make. Enjoy it. Remember: We are FAMILY and we are always here for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Stephen (DD) and Layla.

Kelly Allen

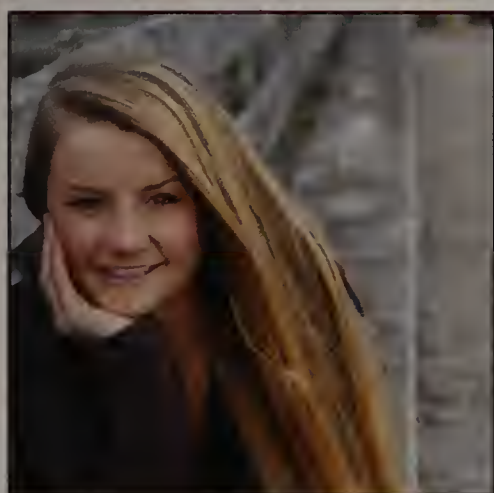

Dear Kelly,
Congratulations to you as you graduate from Sacred Heart!!
We are so very proud of you!!
Many blessings to you always.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Patrick

Kelly Keegan Rathje

Dear Kelly,
Congratulations on your graduation!
We have watched with great amazement and pride at how committed, determined and successful you are at things that interest you. It has been a true joy watching you grow as a person, student and athlete. We pray for your continued growth. You are a unique individual Kelly, with so much to offer this world. Stay true to yourself because great things await you! Remember who you are, where you are and what you represent and attitude is everything. Continue trusting God in every situation.
We love you so very much!

Hannah Wisniewski

Hannah,
Congratulations! You made it! We are so proud and blessed to have a daughter as wonderful, beautiful and talented as you. You will succeed at anything you put your mind to. Remember always, Louis Pasteur and the "Value of Believing in Yourself." May your life be filled with happiness and May God Bless you always!

All our love,
Mum and Dad

Congratulations Hannah! You've made it through high school! You should be so proud of everything that you have accomplished. I can't wait to see what the future has in store for you. I know you will do amazing things!

Love,
Emily

Lily Bessette

We are so proud of you and love
you more than words can say!

CAROLINE PAIGE THOMAS

Caroline,
May you live life fully and find happiness in the little things. Follow all your dreams and always realize how truly beautiful you are and never forget how much you're loved.

Congratulations! We are so proud of our little peanut!!

Love Always,
Mom, Dad and Ryan

Shauna Mary Sweeney

Shauna,

You are beautiful inside and out and we are so proud of the person you've become. You have brought us great joy and always lots of laughter! Follow your Dreams, Be Happy, Go You!

We love you,
Mom and Dad

ERIC STRUSKI

*Do not go where the path may lead;
go instead where there is no path
and leave a trail.*

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

Eric,

As this chapter of your life draws to a close, we reflect back on all that you have accomplished and to look forward to everything you have yet to experience. It is difficult to imagine our home without you as a daily part of it. Your knowledge and wit have challenged us and kept us on our toes. We will miss watching you participate in sports with the talent and hidden passion that you bring to the field/court. But knowing where you are headed in life and everything that your future holds fills us with joy. Wherever life takes you, we are certain that ultimately you will achieve your goals. Your leadership and drive will guarantee that you triumph at anything you set your mind to. We love you and are so indescribably proud of you. Having the pleasure of witnessing you mature into the fine young man you are today, all we can say is, WATCH OUT WORLD!!

Love, Mom, Dad, Kelsea and Rachel

2014

Hannah Rae St. Don

Hannah,

As much as a parent raises a child, so does a child raise a parent. We have learned so much as we have helped you grow into the amazing young woman you've become. There was a time when we thought you'd never let go and now you can't wait to explore the world and all it has to offer! We couldn't be more proud of you!

May this new chapter bring you renewed passion, inspiration and happiness in life. Keep up the good work as you continue to strive toward your goals.

Lots of Love,

Mom & Dad

Griffin Ostrowski

Griffin-

You once wrote that you think of yourself as an honors student and an athlete, a musician and an actor, a loyal and faithful friend.

But, you are so much more. You are a fearless and tenacious competitor, a hopeless romantic and lyrical soul, a loving son and devoted brother.

Although we cannot predict the path that you will follow or the interests that you will pursue, we know that you will do so with honesty and perseverance. Remember that, "Someday, everything will make perfect sense. So for now, laugh at the confusion, smile through the tears, be strong and keep reminding yourself that everything happens for a reason."

Love,
Mom, Dad and Simon

Kellie and Shayla Goodell

"For one so small,
you seem so strong
My arms will hold you,
keep you safe and warm
This bond between us
Can't be broken
I will be here
Don't you cry
'Cause you'll be in my heart
Now and forever more"

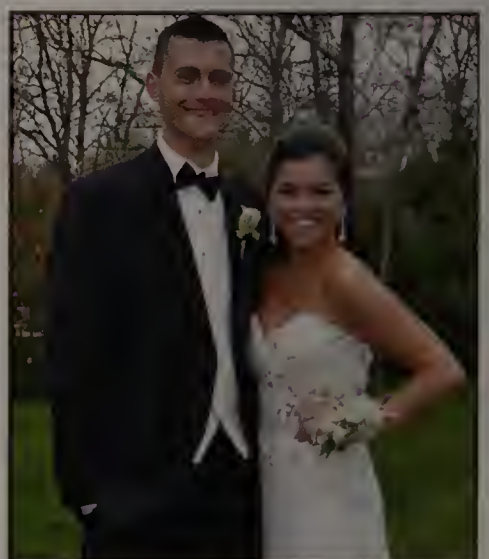

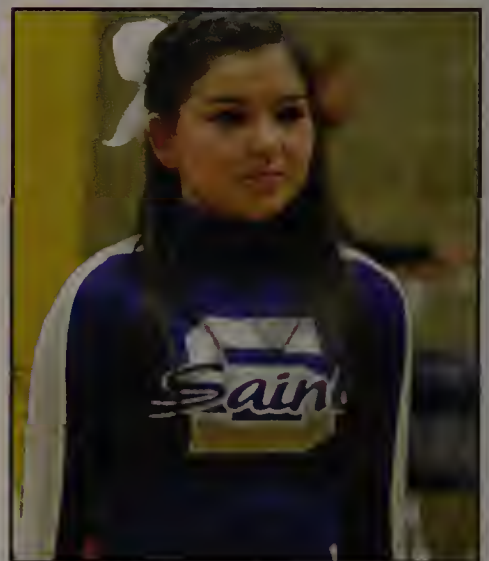

Dear Kellie and Shayla,
We are so proud of both of you!
This is just the first step to a wonderful journey ahead of you.
Always remember to stay strong in your convictions and do not be afraid to be who you want to be. We love you to the moon and back! xoxoxo

Ariana Christine Viscariello

Ariana,
We can't believe high school has come to an end. It seems like just yesterday you were standing on the porch in your little uniform, all excited for first grade! You are a remarkable human being. You are kind and compassionate, loving and giving; beautiful inside and out! As you leave this chapter of your life behind, know that we will always be here for you. You have made us proud! We love you more than you could ever know!
May God Bless you and keep you in His care as you begin the next chapter in your life.
Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Nick and Nathan
